

CITY OF WINTER SPRINGS

The City of Winter Springs welcomes Ken Greenberg as the newly appointed District Three City Commissioner.

March 26, 2018

Congratulations to Ken Greenberg who was appointed to fill the District Three City Commissioner position at the March 26 City Commission Meeting.

Commissioner Ken Greenberg is currently the CEO of US Hospitality Group, LLC, a hotel development firm and President/Broker of a Licensed Real Estate Brokerage. He has served on four Winter Springs Committees: the Tusawilla Lighting & Beautification District Advisory Committee, Districting Committee (2013), Tusawilla Units 12/12A Wall Ad Hoc Advisory Committee, and Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee. He is also the founding board member of the Florida Business Brokers Association, Board of Directors of

The International Center for Religion & Diplomacy, and member of the International Business Brokers Association. He is an alumnus of the University of Florida with a B.A. in Political Science.

Ken and his wife, Nancy, have three grown, successful sons and have been residents of Winter Springs for eight years. He is an avid sports fan with a passion for politics. In their free time, Ken and Nancy enjoy traveling, socializing with friends, and dining together at local restaurants.

Ken brings his appreciation for the beauty and peacefulness of the City of Winter Springs and his desire to serve the community that he loves and is proud to call home. Since his initial move to the City, he has dedicated himself through volunteerism & public service and is thankful to continue as the new District Three City Commissioner.
